

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1894.

NO. 74

BRODHEAD, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Mr. A. H. McClary presented this office with a turnip that weighed 4 lbs. and 10 oz. Mr. J. G. Frith brought us a radish that weighed 3 lbs. and 12 oz.

—Mr. P. F. Cable, who has been working at the photograph business for the last nine years, has now taken a position with W. E. Singleton & Co., at Richmond.

—Albright & Co., of this place, have made an assignment for the benefit of their creditors and the common opinion of the people is that they have acted honorable and done the best they could for those they owe.

—Bro. L. N. Newland has been considerably on the decline for the last few days. Mrs. Rebecca Hughes, the widow of Mr. James Hughes, of Lincoln county, is now at Mr. D. R. Totten's and thought to be at the point of death.

—Mr. Fish's majority over Mr. Bethurum in the Brodhead district for county judge was 68 votes, notwithstanding some correspondent from Mt. Vernon said before the election, that my correspondence would enable Bethurum to carry Brodhead district.

—Miss Iva Painter, who has been spending a few weeks with her uncle, R. Owen, at Salem, Ind., returned home a few days since and is now visiting relatives in Brodhead. Mrs. Thomas Cherry has returned from a two weeks' visit at Lancaster and Rowland. Mrs. J. J. Painter, of Corbin, spent a few days with her friends and relatives in and near this place during the last week. Mr. Thomas McRoberts went to Stanford last Monday. Messrs. Hamm and Cabbell, of Pittsburgh, came home the night before the election and proved their loyalty to their democratic principles, in stamping the X under the rooster on election day.

—Our meeting at the Baptist church, which has been in progress since the night of the 6th inst., has not closed up to this date, the 14th. We now have 10 approved for baptism and 14 restorations making 24 in all. Our dear old church has been much revived. Bro. A. V. Sizemore, who has been working with us in the meeting and who has been doing the preaching, has endeared himself to my people. He has been preaching the gospel with great tenderness and power, taking no near cuts in matters pertaining to salvation. Bro. Sizemore will go back to his church at Stanford, taking with him the prayers and love of many new made friends in this town.

—The grand old First district is still the Gibraltar of the Kentucky democracy. Hendrick leads his republican opponent by a majority of 10,000. Back in the thirties, when "the stars fell," a caravan of wagons encamped on the roadside near Green river. The whole party were alarmed at the awful phenomenon that appeared in the heavens. One of the wagoners said: "Boys, fix your eyes on the North star; if she moves I'll be d-d if we ain't in for it." When the Gibraltar district fails us, then, indeed is the democratic party in for it.—Louisville Times.

—The trans-Siberian railway, which is to be the longest in the world, has been opened as far as Omsk, and one may go there from St. Petersburg, 2,200 miles, in less than five days. The difficulties encountered have been prodigious; and in draining a bog of 60 miles wide engineers and men had to live in huts built on piles and accessible only in boats. Four thousand masts were bought to keep off the venomous mosquitoes.

—The fastest run ever made in this country was over the Pennsylvania road last week between Jersey City and Pittsburgh. General Manager Provost and a party of officials made the trip in eight hours and 30 minutes. During the trip 126 miles were made in 104 minutes, and the trip altogether was made at the rate of a mile a minute.

—The steamship St. Louis, with two exceptions, the largest and most powerful vessel ever built, was launched at Cramp's shipyard. The President and Mrs. Cleveland took an important part in the ceremony. The vessel is American built in every particular.

—It has been announced that the greatest hotel on earth will be opened in New York November 1, 1897. It will be 20 stories high and cost $8,000,000. John Jacob Astor will build it.

—Tom Reed says it is the people who live after they are 40 years old that have the best time. The years up to that time are only preparatory.

—The Centre College foot ball team will play the State College at Lexington Saturday.

—The income of the Czar of Russia is equal to $25,000 per day every day in the year.

For a pain in the side or chest there is not ing a good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame backs.

For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist, Stanford.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Bro. Gowen's meeting closed Saturday, much to the regret of his admiring auditors. It was one of the most pleasant and beneficial meetings held here for some years. There were 15 additions.

—Thanksgiving evening is usually one of enjoyment here, some of the churches or organizations, always giving a supper. We have no knowledge of any to be given this Thanksgiving, however.

—The hunting and fishing club did not go to Green river this week for various reasons, but will be off next week. Some of their Richmond friends are expected to come over and take a week's outing with the club.

—Owen Williams, mugwump, and Smith Yowell, populist, did not make a very hot race for constable, receiving only 2 and 1 vote respectively. Friends attribute their polling so light to the fact that it does not require heavy polls for suckers.

—J. B. Cook will spend a few days hunting in Shelby county. Will King and Ed Powell went to Columbia Wednesday. Carroll Reid spent a few days with his parents. He will deliver the horses to their owners and come home Monday to spend several months. D. S. Skinner and wife are visiting relatives in Garrard. J. G. Weatherford and family are visiting from Milldale.

—Dr. Brown has gone on his annual fall trip to Tennessee to "drive the deer with hound and horn."

The doctor is a deer hunter of the old school and has chased them with excitement, when

"The hounds ran swiftly through the woods,

The nimble deer to take,

That with their crys the hills and dales,

An echo shrill did make."

And is sure to bring a plentiful supply of venison for his friends.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

—Born to the wife of Jordan Carter, Jr., on the 10th inst., a girl, Carrie.

—The trustees at Grove have torn down their school-house and are preparing to build a new one instead. Napier Bros., have the contract at $300 and they are to furnish the material.

—B. V. Meade, surveyor, has opened up and put in repair the old county road, leading from Grove to the Lincoln line near Duncan. This road has not been worked for years, notwithstanding its importance.

—Five young democrats, H. C. McWhorter, John Baxter, W. R. Falconberry, Crit Spears and Harlan Perkins cast their first vote at the late election. They are of the stock that always takes it straight too.

—The republicans are very hilarious over their famous victory and are running the boys in the trenches, in a way that is anything but pleasant. They ought to be more lenient, and should not forget so soon, that just two years ago, when there was not a greasy spot left of them, how they humped up like dogs that had eaten a bait of garlic and vomited. They attempted to celebrate Friday night with anvils, but the powder "flashed in the pan." At least those sleeping in close proximity to them, were not the least disturbed. Somehow or other they always make a "fizz out." They usually call upon Col. Adams to help them in their jubilations, but this time he was under the snow along with the democrats and felt kind o' bad too.

Wisconsin Central Lines.

Through line from Chicago to St. Paul and Minneapolis, making close connection (no transfer) with lines running to all points in Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Oregon, California, and Pacific Coast points. The direct line to all points in Eastern, Middle, Northern and Western Wisconsin, Ashland, Duluth and all Lake Superior points. Double daily through train service with first-class equipment. For full particulars address any ticket agent in the United States or J. C. Pond, general passenger agent, Milwaukee, Wis.

—In Lewis county Will Kennedy killed his brother John with a fence rail. This trouble began over a woman. Three years ago Oscar Irwin married Lizzie Patterson, girl of 14. Soon after a man named John Cox took the girl wife away from her husband. Then Bill Kennedy took her away from Cox. John Kennedy then fell in love with the girl and took her away from his brother Bill, and the killing resulted.

—Over 100 people were killed by an earthquake in Northern Chile.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Wilkeson, Fla., says he cured a case of diphtheria in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it successfully with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in his medicine chest. After having a gripe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He uses other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure.

For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist, Stanford.

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Miss Carrie Myers has gone to Louisville to visit relatives.

—Judge H. F. Finley spent Saturday and Sunday in Pineville.

—Dr. A. S. Worrell, of Louisville, filled the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday.

—Last Monday was police court day. Business light; everybody is behaving in these parts.

—K. D. Perkins spent Saturday and Sunday with Judge R. Boyd at Harlan C. H. He says the judge is right seriously hurt from his fall, but thinks he will be able to get out again in a few weeks.

—James Brown, who lives near Brummett Station, got one of his fingers caught between a wagon bed and a tree last Tuesday and it was mashed so badly that amputation was necessary. Dr. Finley performed the operation for him.

—Mr. Clifford Weisner is in Louisville. Mr. and Mrs. Steve Whitehead, of Big Stone Gap, visited friends and relatives here last week. Miss Maggie Costello, of Barbourville, visited the Misses O'Mara last week. Mr. L. C. Drake is here to settle the loss of his company, the Union Central, on the life of W. H. Meadows. It is $4,000. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Moore have returned from St. Albans, W. Va., where they have been visiting Mrs. Moore's relatives.

—Sunday afternoon George McNabb, colored, and his wife went to church and left their three little children locked up at home. Shortly afterwards the house was discovered to be on fire by James Lanters, who happened to pass by. He burst the door open and saved two of the children, but the baby, who was nearest to where the house caught, had already been surrounded by the flames and he could not get it out. Its charred remains were found after the fire was over.

—The recent Congressional campaign may not be ended yet, as it is reported that a prominent republican here says he does not intend that certain newspapermen shall suggest what they please and not be responsible for it; not that he thinks their accusations will affect his standing in the community, but that it is about time we were calling a halt to this thing of newspapers accusing men of misappropriating funds and wilfully and maliciously doing anything to secure the nomination and election of their favorite candidate, so our grand jury may be called on to investigate this matter.

—The election passed off quietly in this county, with about the same results as in the rest of the country. We did not send you a letter last week, as we supposed you had gotten about all of the kind of news we could send that you wanted to hear. The county went about its usual majority republican, electing every republican nominee, except justice of the peace in the second district, where W. B. White defeated Lovitt. Mr. White is an independent republican. Whitley still has one democratic precinct, judge-elect Isaac Miller, police judge of Corbin, and one democratic precinct, Woodbine, so we are not in absolute darkness yet.

—Mrs. Charlotte Robertson Bell, the last surviving daughter of the late Chief Justice George Robertson, and the widow of Dr. David D. Bell, for 50 years an eminent medical practitioner in Lexington, who died in Nicholasville Sunday, was born in Garrard and was a second cousin of Mrs. R. C. Warren, of this place.

—It is definitely stated that when Carlisle's term is up he will resume his profession either in New York or Washington. As evidence there is no differences between Cleveland and Carlisle there is a rumor that they will constitute a law firm.

—Lt. Gov. James A. Walker, who succeeded Stonehill Jackson as commander of the famous brigade, is the only republican elected to Congress in Virginia. He will represent the 9th district.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Frank Renner, who was so badly injured in the boiler explosion, is yet alive. Wesley Mintz and Farnick McPherson are recovering.

—Dr. J. J. Brown, who has been quite ill, is able to be about. Mrs. Martha Schooler, of Garrard, is visiting the family of Willis Adams.

—A young fellow from Ohio on his way to North Carolina passed through here on a bicycle. How he got along without a derick we can't understand.

—There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the new institute, Saturday, to decide whether the school will be turned over to Centre College or conducted by the county.

—M. C. Miller is from Austin, Texas. Magistrate-elect Ashley Owens was up from Livingston. He is the first democrat magistrate elected in that precinct for many years. Mr. and Mrs. Boulware, of Bloomington, Ill., who have been visiting relatives here, will leave for home to-morrow. Hiram Fish and family are in from Fountain Head, Tenn. Dr. J. H. Lawrence, of Harlan county, is here with home folks. Mrs. Dr. J. M. Cooper, of Livingston, visited Mrs. F. L. Thompson this week. Mr. Richard Williams returned from Centre College Wednesday quite ill. Mrs. Dr. J. T. Brooks has returned to Paris, after a visit to relatives here. Mrs. Jonas McKenzie, who has been quite ill, is recovering. Mrs. J. K. McClary entertained a number of friends in handsome style last Wednesday.

ROWLAND.

—A minstrel troupe has been organized here, consisting of the best musical talent in the city. They will soon start on the road and we predict for them a successful tour.

—Lookout for another wedding in a short time. As Winter approaches, those who are matrimonially inclined very wisely take advantage of the peculiar fitness of the season.

—This is the only poll in the country that deserves a rooster and it should be placed on Judge Shelton's premises, where the votes were cast. Fifty out of 80 voters in the town are straight democrats and they elected 5 in 7 of the city officers.

—Craig Camden, David Vandever and Widfield Ware were before Judge Barnett, Tuesday, charged with disturbing the peace last Friday night in Needmore. Ware and Camden were fined $5 each and Vandever's case will be heard by the county judge.

—J. T. Cherry and wife, of Brodhead, have been visiting the family of J. H. Hilton. Mr. Hilton and his cultured daughter, Miss Bertie, have been visiting relatives in Meriter. His sister, Mrs. Kelton, and son returned with them.

—Your Lancaster correspondent took occasion in Tuesday's issue to throw an unkind thrust at this correspondent by accusing him of leaving Lancaster Tuesday night for the Fiji Islands. He only came to his place of business. If he had been hunting heathens it would not have been necessary to leave Lancaster, nor would it be necessary to go further to find a few good democrats.

—Secret ballots hide a multitude of faults, as has just been demonstrated, and the writer of this will support any democrat for the Legislature who is in favor of the repeal of that law. Many men have scratched their tickets for local and personal reasons, who would not have done so with an open poll. This will not be denied, for it occurred in Lincoln and Garrard counties. Some whisky men and some local option men went back on their democracy and voted against men who had entertained views different from theirs on that issue. The returns prove this. The republicans need not crow, for they didn't do it. Men who once wore the name of democrat did it. Since the officers at the two court houses in the counties named are equally divided, it is suggested that a wing be built to each, to be known as mugwump and bolters' headquarters. This would be eminently appropriate.

Let the public judge which side of this local issue went further astray. The candidates and the returns in both counties will settle it.

—Another trouble is that the candidates did not pull together, while the republicans worked shoulder and never scratch ed.

—Little Switzerland has an enormous army in proportion to its population. The population is 2,900,000; the standing army 126,000.

—The revenue of the postoffice department decreased for the fiscal year ending June 30, and the expenditures increased.

—Samuel Rice, has on the recommendation of Gov. McCreary been appointed watchman of the public building at Rich mond.

—Three fallen women have been strangled to death at Denver in as many weeks by mysterious parties.

—The future control of the Q. & C. by the C. H. & D. is now an assured fact.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD KY., NOVEMBER 16, 1894

W. P. WALTON.

THE report of the U. S. strike commission, appointed to investigate the labor troubles growing out of the Pullman strike, is one of the most demagogical papers we have ever seen. It goes for the Pullman company, berates the general managers' association and coos a little critically with the employees for declining to submit to any reduction at all. Debs' American Railway Union is given some praise and the general use of U. S. marshals in running trains is pronounced a bad precedent. The commission wants its body perpetuated, so it recommends a permanent strike commission, with duties and powers of investigation and recommendation as to disputes between railroads and their employees, similar to those vested in the Inter-State Commerce Commission as to rates, &c., and that power be given to the U. S. courts to compel railroads to obey the decisions of the commission. There is no recommendation as to forcing employees to obey its decisions and it looks decidedly unfair to require one side to concede everything and the other nothing. The report is in the nature of an endorsement of the Chicago riots and will go far towards counteracting the good effect of the bayonet and balls argument that compelled a cessation of them.

THE secret ballot, which its advocates claimed would purify elections and render fraud impossible, has proved a delusion and a snare; a pit, as it were, for the democratic party to fall into. No such contentions as have been brought on all over the State could have resulted, if the good old way of viva voce voting had been in vogue, and it is a dead moral certainty that Lincoln county would never have gone republican, if so-called democrats had been forced to go on record. It is so easy for a coward to give his party or an enemy that may be running in the interest of that party, a stab in the dark of the booths, with his little stencil, and that's what's the matter with Kentucky. We always opposed that system of voting, but it was foisted upon us by the new constitution, together with many other mean things, and will be very hard to get rid of. The constitution was not made in a day by a good many and it can not be changed except in many years.

Gov. Brown has seen fit to pardon Frank Rankin, the former wealthy scales manufacturer at Louisville, who was serving a life term for the unprovoked murder of Martin Cody, a painter, in 1883. A mob came very near hanging Rankin at the time, but the governor has doubtless found some new testimony of an extenuating nature to cause him to give the man his liberty so soon.

HARRISON, Reed, McKinley and Morton are the republican "Big Four." The democratic party does not seem to have even a "Big One," since the avalanche swept down upon us on the 6th. There may be a Moses somewhere in the bulrushes to lead us through the wilderness and the Red Sea to the promised land, but he has not yet appeared.

In four States of the hitherto solid South, the republicans elected Legislatures and 36 out of the 126 Congressmen. In the present Congress there are but six republicans from the South. After remaining solid for 20 years, it is singular that the break should come immediately after the repeal of the odious force bill.

It is said that George W. Scroggan, who spent his life breeding race horses and betting on them, arrived at the conclusion three days before his death that betting is wrong. There are a great many things we do in life that take on a different hue, when we come face to face with the terrible monster, death.

BLAND, the Missouri silverite, will cease from troubling after this session of Congress. He is among the slain in the recent battle of the ballots. He has always been a disturbing element in the democratic party, and there will be few tears shed over his political grave.

THE noblest Roman of them all, Hon. Allen G. Thurman, celebrated his 81st birthday Monday at his home in Columbus, O. It seems the irony of fate that the old man should have lived to see his State and country fall into such evil times.

NEWSY NOTES.

—It is now claimed that Chicago has a population of 2,236,000.

—It is reported that Senator Lindsay is to succeed Attorney General Olney.

—Wm. B. Robinson, a prominent Mason, of Frankfort, dropped dead in that city.

—Alex Harris, of Piqua, O., attempted suicide by puncturing his head with an ice pick.

—Twenty-eight thousand bales of cotton were destroyed by fire opposite New Orleans. Loss $500,000.

—The chair warehouse at the Frankfort penitentiary burned with its contents. Loss $75,000, insured for $40,000.

—Lots that cost $2,600 were sold for $100 the other day in Winfield, a Kansas boom town.

—Corbett's diamond championship belt, valued at $8,000 was stolen from the window of a Davenport, Iowa, druggist.

—E. T. England, a Barboursville merchant, has been sued for $5,000 for calling a farmer a thief, a rogue and an imposter.

—The three trials of Dr. Massie for the murder of Jesse Honaker in Owen, resulted in verdicts for life. The last ended Monday.

—Four-year-old Emma Zimmerman, of New York City, goes blind and remains so for several days whenever she eats any kind of pastry.

—James Johnson, of Gallipolis, O., is the owner of a mule that went through both the Mexican and civil wars without receiving a gun-shot.

SENATOR BLACKBURN will be out denying another interview soon. The Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette says he remarked in conversation about the race in the Ashland district that Bill Owens is the d—nest political fool he ever knew personally; that his race was a series of mistakes throughout and should have been made on the lofty plane of his own merits instead of Col. Breckinridge's demerits. Any sensible man could have beaten Denny by 2,000 votes. Whether the Senator repudiates the interview or not, there is a great deal of truth in it. Owens did act the chump in many things most completely.

We have it pretty straight that the chairman of the republican Congressional committee in the 11th, Mr. R. D. Hill, of Williamsburg, will have Editors A. R. Dyche, of the London Echo, and A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Paragon, indicted for criminal libel, the alleged libel being the impugnment of his personal honor and official integrity. The editors did not like the way he worked things for Colson and said so in words more forcible than polite. We do not like to see our editorial friends get into trouble, but it is not our fight, and if dog chooses to eat dog, we haven't got anything to say.

The face of the returns showed that Judge Toney was elected to the appellate bench in the Louisville district by the slender majority of 25 and he and John R. Pfanzl, to be sheriff, and W. P. Johnson, to be clerk of Jefferson county, were given certificates of election. Mr. Boyle will contest the election of Judge Toney, on the grounds of illegal voting and the failure of the board to consider returning ballots. The other two democrats, saved from the wreck, seem to be safely elected, without a dispute.

Gov. Brown has seen fit to pardon Frank Rankin, the former wealthy scales manufacturer at Louisville, who was serving a life term for the unprovoked murder of Martin Cody, a painter, in 1883. A mob came very near hanging Rankin at the time, but the governor has doubtless found some new testimony of an extenuating nature to cause him to give the man his liberty so soon.

—On the ground that his present wife was about to be confined, Harry Delaney, who is charged with the murder of his bride, Abbie Oliver, in Union county, secured a continuance. Lewis Land, implicated in the same tragedy, was put on trial, but one of the jurors fainted and court adjourned until to-day.

—Judge Barr yesterday ordered the sale of more than 77,000 acres of mineral and timber land, situated in Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia, belonging to the American Association, Limited, to satisfy the holders of $1,500,000 of the company's bonds. This is the same association that boomed Middlesboro and other places around Cumberland Gap.

Some Election Echoes.

—The republican plurality in Ohio has been ascertained finally to have been 138,809.

—It turns out that two democrats are elected to Congress in Illinois, both by slender majorities.

—The official count in the 9th Congressional district is as follows: Pugh, rep. 19,058, Hart, dem. 18,396; Pugh's majority 662.

—The official count elects a democrat to Congress from Chicago by a plurality of 70 votes, making two democratic Congressmen saved from the wreck in Illinois.

—The democratic minority in the Michigan Legislature will no doubt, rise and protest as one man, against the encroachments of the inflated republican majority.

—In New York the law requires that a candidate shall make oath to the amount expended in his campaign. Gov. Morton spent $19,790 to get his 150,000 majority.

—There are enough democrats in the United States to carry the country by an overwhelming majority, and they will do it as soon as they get the leaders and issues they want.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dunn, who recently sold their place near McKinney to K. L. Tanner, yesterday bought of J. H. Baughman the Eaton place, near Hon. J. S. Owsley's, of 106 acres, for $5,665.

—The republican majority in Indiana officially stated was at the recent election 55,674 by congressional districts. On the State ticket it was 47,649. The popular vote for Secretary of State was 29,521, a gain of 7,504 over 1892.

—Henry county democrats will contest the election of Shouse, republican, for Sheriff. He claims the election by three votes, but the democrats hold that when numerous fraudulent votes are thrown out the democratic candidate, Yeager, will have a majority.

—The 7th was the first Congressional district to officially report and it gives Owens a plurality of 101 votes. Total vote cast: Owens, democrat, 13,677; Denny, republican, 13,576; Johnson, populist, 262; Finnell, prohibitionist, 554. It is said that Denny has employed attorney to contest the seat.

The Advocate says there will be four, possibly six barrooms opened at Junction City. The new board of trustees will grant license to any responsible person who applies.

MORE GAS.—Another vein of gas was struck at the water works, which came with such force as to stop the boring for water. The company has sent for an expert and the supply will be fully tested. It comes out with a roar equal to the rushing of many waters.

LECTURE.—Mr. Billie R. Collins will deliver his lecture on "Life is What We Make It," at Walton's Opera House Saturday night, 17th. Extracts from it show it to be a production of unusual merit. Admission 50 cents. Get a reserved seat at W. B. McRoberts' without extra charge.

BUFORD.—Eld. J. G. Livingston has just received news from Kansas of the death of his sister, Mrs. Kittie Buford, wife of the late Thomas Buford, who died about six months ago. We regret exceedingly that in telling of the Caledonian meeting, we inadvertently neglected to mention Miss Isabel Bailey's violin solo, which was remarkably well executed. She has decided talent in that line and handles "the fiddle and the bow" with unusual skill for one of her years.

The silver-tongued orator of the Sierras, Billie R. Collins, as he is described, does not come from cultured Boston and does not claim to be an elocutionist; simply a child of nature, with a message of beautiful thoughts, which he tells in an eloquent manner. He will appear at Walton's Opera House to-morrow night, 17th.

LAST CALL.—Tax-payers are hereby notified that all lands and property on which taxes remain unpaid Dec. 1, 1894, will be advertised and sold for taxes.

None excepted. Six per cent. added to all taxes after Dec. 1st. The law requires me to settle all business as sheriff before January 1, '95. I therefore urge every tax-payer in arrears to settle at once. J. N. Menefee, sheriff.

Mr. W. B. McKinney says we were mistaken in reporting that he claimed that all the uncounted ballots in the Engine House voting place were for Cooper. What he did say was that he only remembered two of the disputed ballots and that nobody thinking there was any doubt about any race except the judge's, he was only looking out for Givens and paid little attention to the other races.

An Endowment Section has been added to Diadem Lodge No. 81, Knights of Pythias, and most of the Knights have joined. W. H. Warren is president; B. H. Danks, vice-president and Jesse D. Warren, secretary. Policies amounting to nearly $50,000 are held by the members. This is a remarkably cheap insurance and if we are to judge the future by the past we may say a very safe plan. None but Knights in good standing can become members.

H. BRIGHT FERRILL, representing Deputy Collector J. M. Carter, returned yesterday morning from a raid in Harlan county. He was accompanied by Deputy Collectors Burton and Buckner, of Lebanon, Colyer, of Somerset, and Wilson, of Harrodsburg, and they succeeded in breaking up two illicit distilleries and destroying about 1,200 gallons of beer. The distilleries were owned by Messrs. Wilson and Morgan, but neither of the owners could be found. The natives positively refused to hire the revenue men horses and they were compelled to walk from Hagan, Va., a distance of 20 miles. Mr. Ferrill brought back as souvenirs of his trip several pieces of the still he cut up, one of which he left at this office.

JIM TALL, our fighting negro, got on a tear the other night and shot his pistol off in Macksville several times. Marshal Newland ran to the scene, but Tall had gone to his home and to that place Mr. Newland next went. He found James sitting by the fire with a musket in his hands and when "Brother" made his mission known Tall pulled the gun down on him and he very sensibly backed out. Tall then shut the door and told Mr. Newland to let him alone. In the mean time Sam Humber, another darkey, had come to the door where Mr. Newland was and was talking with him. Tall heard them and fired through the closed door, the slugs with which the musket was loaded striking Humber in the stomach. The door stopped the force of the load or we might have had to chronicle the death of a darkey. Mr. Newland left the house and on the next day arrested Tall, who will be tried before Judge Carson this morning.

BUFORO.—Eld. J. G. Livingston has just received news from Kansas of the death of his sister, Mrs. Kittie Buford, wife of the late Thomas Buford, who died about six months ago. Mrs. Buford was a member of the Christian church and will be remembered by our older citizens as an excellent woman. Two children survive her.

NURSE.—An experienced nurse desires engagements, confidencies or favors, willing to go anywhere. Best of references. Mrs. Mary R. Bibb, McKinney.

ASSIGNED.—J. H. Albright &amp; Co., Brodhead merchants, have assigned to R. S. Martin, for the benefit of their creditors. Liabilities and assets both stated at $3,000. Difficulty of collection given as the cause of the failure.

PEERLESS in the pulpit and matchless on the lecture platform, Dr. Madison C. Peters, who appears at Walton's Opera House to-night, should draw a full house. Our people do not get a chance often to listen to such a man and they can not afford to let such an opportunity pass them by.

CUMMING WINS.—After numerous postponements presumably to get the benefit of the decision in similar cases at Louisville, Messrs. J. N. Menefee and W. E. Varnon decided yesterday at 2 o'clock to give the certificate of election as county clerk, to James F. Cummings, who was elected on the face of the returns, by a majority of six over George B. Cooper. Judge Varnon was all the time of the opinion that the board had no right to count the rejected ballots, but Mr. Menefee thought at first they should be counted. Mr. Cooper has announced his intention to contest the election on the question of counting those ballots and on account of fraudulent votes cast against him. This will bring the question of whether the ballots returned uncounted were tampered with or not, before a tribunal competent to investigate it, and set it at rest one way or the other. Certainly no one believes Mr. Cooper would be guilty of such a crime and we can hardly imagine anyone mean enough to commit it. Mr. Cummings has steadily grown in the estimation of the people, who have observed his course in the matter and he has made friends on all sides.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Only one out of every thousand married couples live to celebrate their golden wedding.

—Willie K. Vanderbilt has settled $3,000,000 on his wife in adjusting their differences and they will live apart.

—Millionaire W. H. Albach, of Milwaukee, was married Wednesday to Mrs. C. L. Graves, for 14 years cashier of the Palmer House, Chicago.

—The newspaper reporters describe Col. Clay's child wife as "exquisitely beautiful." We suppose this is on the general understanding that all brides are bound to be beautiful. If she is pretty though, she has wasted her sweetness on the desert air, and it is decidedly a case of Beauty and the Beast. The old general looks more like a lion than a human being.

—Mr. Charles Burdett, a good looking young man, and Miss Jennie Cheenut, a pretty young lady, drove over from Lancaster Wednesday afternoon, accompanied by Miss Alice Chesnut and Mr. John W. Woods, and were married at the Myers House. It was not an elopement. The young couple had heard of the beauties of the Gretna Green and wanted to test them.

—After a good deal of difficulty in getting some one to marry him to the little girl, Gen. Cassius M. Clay succeeded in obtaining the services of a hard up squire and at 10 o'clock Tuesday the unnatural alliance was consummated. The general's children and friends did all in their power to prevent the marriage, but the old man was determined and ran some of them off his premises with a gun.

—Rev. Sanford M. Logan yesterday obtained license to marry. This announcement will occasion surprise to his congregation and other friends, until we explain that the permission is to unite couples in matrimony bent, who desire his services. He got knocked out of the fees in the Burdett-Cheenut marriage, by not having authority to perform the ceremony, but he is O. K., now and his services are hereby extended to all who need them in that line, at the usual rates. He is opposed to the pernicious habit of cutting.

—Rev. F. T. McIntire will preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning and night.

—The third annual convention of the King's Daughters and Sons of Kentucky will be held at Owensboro November 21 and 22.

—Rev. W. E. Ellis writes from Parkland that he was unable to secure a preacher to fill his pulpit Sunday, so Elder J. S. Hocker will conduct the services.

—The Kentucky State Sunday-school Union is getting ready for enlarged usefulness. Liabilities which over a year ago were $3,000 are now less than $400. The next State convention will be held in Lexington.

—The Hopkinsville Baptists held their last services in the church they had used for 50 years, last Sunday, and next month they will occupy a handsome $30,000 edifice. The new church will be dedicated in December by Rev. N. W. Wharton, of Baltimore.

—While the negroes were celebrating their victory at Elizabethtown, the marshal, who insisted that they were firing and everything usually found at such an establishment. Try us on price. We do not sell through agents but direct to the planter. Catalogue on application. H. F. HILLENMEYER, Lexington, Ky.

ville next week.

—Charles Farris, the young negro arrested for stealing whiskey, etc., plead guilty on four cases of petit larceny. He received 60 days in the work house in each case—a total of 240 days.

—B. G. Fox has bought 600 barrels of corn from different parties in this country at $1.90 and $2 delivered. He also bought W. D. Moore's timothy meadow for $600. Farris &amp; Whitley delivered the past week to Weitz for Goldsmith, 100

head of export cattle that averaged 1,493 lbs., for which they received 5 cents.

They also sold to Wheil 89 head of 200

lb. hogs at 4c.—Advocate.

—A dramatization of Goethe's immortal production, Faust, will be presented at the Danville Opera House Thursday night, the 22d, with Mr. John Griffith in the role of Mephisto. Faust has attracted more attention than any of the Immortal Goethe's magnificent works. Its motives are based upon the passions, heating them in the caldron of imagination, letting them seethe and bubble and boil until they burst all restraint, and find expressions in scenes of revelry, and later remorse. It also depicts the deterioration of a noble character of virtue suffering at the hands of vice, and portrays the mighty truth, "that sin must bring its own punishment." The company enacting this pictorial sermon, is strong and well selected, each artist being especially adapted for his or her part, with scenic and electrical effects that are marvelous and complete. The production of this melodramatic tragedy, should call forth a house packed to the doors. Prices 50, 75 and $1. Seats at Local Denby's drug store.

—Fifteen prominent citizens of Cullman county, Ala., have been arrested, charged with a cowardly double lynching that occurred several years ago. Warrants have been issued for about 100 others, who are said to compose an organized band of whitecaps.

Curios of Nature as Seen In the Cruel Plant and the Living Arch.

A Canadian climber, the Physostethus albus, has received the name of "cruel plant" from its ill treatment of butterflies. It flowers in the month of August, and the butterflies, attracted by the perfume, hover round it in large numbers and push their trunks into the corollas to sip the honey. A pair of sensitive vegetable pinchers in the heart of the flower grips the delicate proboscis, and in spite of struggles to get free the butterfly hangs suspended until it dies. Apparently the plant had nothing to gain by the death of the insect, as it is not "caravivors," like the Venus flytrap. In fact, if the butterfly were allowed to come and go, it would tend to foster the species by assisting cross fertilization. It appears, however, that the "cruel plant" came originally from Brazil, where the butterflies are much stronger and extricate their suckers from the trap. We may add that another Canadian plant, the Cnidoscolus discolor, is charged with cruelty. The flower has a gland which secretes a viscous liquid capable of liming insects which are fond of it. Moreover, they seem to be stupefied and poisoned by it, and no reason can as yet be assigned for the deadly consequence.

A remarkable tree growth described and illustrated, as is the foregoing, by Cassell's Magazine exists in an arch between a private park and a public road at Middleboro, Mass. It is formed of three trunks, which coalesce, and a fourth has been added for symmetry by the owner of the park, but whether the trunks are independent trees or have sprung from one root has not been ascertained. Such a curio from the hand of nature is certainly more interesting than an artificial entrance.

Another curious tree growth reported consists of two beeches, over a foot in diameter and 20 feet apart, joined like the Siamese twins by a nearly horizontal branch, which appears to have grown out of one trunk and united itself with the other in such a way that it is impossible to tell from which tree it sprang. This bond is 12 feet from the ground, and near its middle a smaller limb springs almost vertically downward toward the ground.

A Typewriter For Bookkeepers.

Since the introduction of typewriting machines and their acceptance by the business world it has been the aim of inventors to produce a typewriter capable of use on books of record and on insurance policies and other large documents of varying sizes. According to the New York Sun, this is now accomplished in a machine which will receive a book of any required width or thickness, will write a line long or short and is so devised that the distance between lines may be scaled to suit the amount of space at hand. A noticeable feature also is the ribbon attachment for writing with ink of any desired color. The removal of a black ribbon, for instance, and the substitution of a red, purple or green ribbon are accomplished with both ease and celerity.

Where several copies of a manuscript are desired there is an arrangement by which the last copy of a dozen or 15 comes out as plain as the first.

An Indestructible Lamp Wick.

This wick, made entirely of clay, is rendered capillary in a unique way—by incorporating with the clay, while it is in a plaster state, filaments of unspun vegetable fiber, which are burned out in the process of baking. The burning out of the vegetable fiber leaves capillary tubes running longitudinally through the wick, through which the oil from the lamp will be raised to the flame by capillary attraction. Owing to the perfect combustion of the wick the flame is perfectly white in character, devoid of odor and smokeless. It is claimed that an indestructible wick is thus provided which possesses all the advantageous qualities of an ordinary cotton or fiber wick, and, in addition, lasts an indefinite time without renewal or necessity of trimming or care.

The Light of the Sun.

The light of the sun, according to Mr. Tesla, is the result of vibrations in 94,000,000 miles of ether, which separate us from the center of this solar system. "It is difficult for me," he said, "to give you an idea that you will readily grasp about this question of vibration. In ordinary life our minds do not deal with the figures that come up in such investigations, but take a 5 and put after it 14 zeros, then you will have the number of vibrations which occur in the ether every second, and which produce light."

HAIR, TEETH AND NAILS.*Practical Hints For Their Care and Preservation.

Cleanliness is the first thing to be observed in the treatment of the hair, as excessive shampooing creates dandruff. Once in two, or three weeks is quite enough. Nothing is better for washing than hot water and castile soap. Great care should be used in rinsing, or the dry condition left by soap causes the hair to break. A mixture which gives the hair a beautiful gloss is of soft soap and petroleum.

Much cutting of the hair causes early grayness. Singeing is much better. The hair resembles in some respects a vine. The coloring matter is a fluid secreted in every single hair. After cutting, it is examined under a microscope, the hair can easily be seen to bleed just the same as a broken vine. This is the coloring matter flowing after the cut. Men become gray generally sooner than women because of frequent cutting. All women become gray first in their front hair, which is cut most. Turkish baths are bad for the hair, the heat causing it to break. No one should ever take a Turkish bath without wetting the hair.

While decay of the teeth cannot be entirely prevented, it can be retarded. Decay is caused by a parasite which imbeds itself in the teeth and eats away. It cannot find its way below the surface of the enamel, however. Consequently the preservation of the enamel is the greatest consideration. Biting and chewing threads chip the enamel on the edges of the teeth. Nearly all professional sewing women have ragged teeth from this cause.

Do not pick the teeth. Cigarette smoking, while not advised, prevents decay. Running a silk dental floss between the teeth dislodges particles of food which a brush never reaches. Washing the mouth before retiring and in the morning with Listerine diluted with water is excellent. Plain ointments and precipitated chalk is the best tooth powder. Salt used occasionally hardens the gums.

Every woman can be her own manicure with the small outlay for a practical manicure set, not a fancy and useless affair in ivory or silver, but a wooden polisher covered with soft chamois, a good steel file, a pair of manicure scissors and a box of powder. Paste is vulgar. The nails should never be cut, but always filed. Nor should they be cleaned with any sharp steel instrument. The proper thing to use is a boxwood or orange wood stick. Rubbing the nails of one hand on the palm of the other adds greatly to their beauty. Daily polishing makes the nails transparent and so flexible that they can be bent over without breaking. A nailbrush is indispensable both because of its cleanliness and of the fact that it acts as a stimulant to the circulation. Very little cutting should be done to the nails and then only to remove the dead flesh. Many people in drying the hands push back the cuticle with a towel. This is absolutely wrong, and produces a thick, swollen ridge which is very unsightly.

The most refined length to wear the nail is just to the end of the finger, and not pointed, but almond shaped. Upon the little finger the nail should be longer than the others to give a look of symmetry to the hand and a uniform length to each finger.

Tommy Nut.
"Oh, Tommy Nut, in your jacket brown,
Why do you hang in the hickory tree?"
"Oh, I'm waiting for brave Jack Frost, you see,
He will come very soon to cut me down."

"Oh Tommy, now tell, is it nice up there?
To swing in the sun and the soft twilight?"
"The truth is I'm fat, and my jacket's tight,
I think he'll hang plenty of sun and air."

"My jolly bro'n brothers there on the ground
Have their jackets slashed in the newest style,
But Jack keeps me waiting the longest while,
I shall burst tonight if he doesn't come round!"

Then goodby to you, dear old hickory tree!
When I've sucked the sweet dew, drunk sun and rain,
Where I've swung in the wind's wild hurricane,
Till I'm giddy and fat as a nut can be!"

Whirs of the Wheel.
Teachers say that fear of falling is the only thing that prevents a person from learning to ride the wheel in one or two lessons.

Once acquired, the art of riding a bicycle is never forgotten, but after four or five weeks' abstinence from riding one feels that the steering is not as steady as it ought to be for the first mile or so, says Golden Days.
